THE RISE AND TRIUMPH OF THE
DISABILITY RIGHTS MOVEMENT

Documentary Film Screening

WEDNESDAY 14 JUNE

6:15PM – 8:00PM

CONFERENCE ROOM 4

Documenting the rise and fight of the disability rights movement in Australia, the UK and USA this film looks at how activists around the world helped to free their people from incarceration in institutions and came to a new understanding of disability by reframing it as a problem of society rather than a problem existing within individuals. The film is filled with rare archival imagery and teases out a nuanced little known story about how disabled people have literally changed our world.

SARAH BARTON, Defiant Lives Director and Producer, will introduce the film and hold a Question & Answer session following the screening.
